

Teak Lumber

Currently Flower World uses our Teak Lumber for outdoor garden containers, trellises, stakes and garden furniture. Some is produced in Belize and some is produced at our woodshop onsite. A very popular teak product are tiles. We produce 24" x24" teak tiles and they can easily be installed as garden patios.

We also sell Teak lumber pieces for wood grafters at very competitive prices. Our plantation teak trees are young and in the thinning phase so most of our lumber is shorter in length and smaller in width. This type of teak makes beautiful walls and ceilings as you can see in the picture below of our restaurant ceiling. This ceiling was constructed of 1" tongue and groove plantation teak from our own lumber. We also have limited quantities of thicker lumber available.

When buying Teak on the Internet, Buyer Beware!

As you shop on the internet, you will find that average US Teak prices are between $30 - $50 per board foot. You may find listings as low as $9 per board foot. To accurately compare prices, you must determine the actual quantity of wood you will receive in board feet. One board foot is 12" long x 12" wide x 1" thick, or 144 cubic inches. To calculate board feet use this simple formula:

Length x width x thickness / 144. All numbers must be measured in inches.

Other sources will offer 3/4" x 5 1/2" as a full size 1" x 6" board, list sizes in decimals, or use the metric system to make it difficult to know exactly what you are getting. We list our boards in inches for easily calculation.

We try to be as transparent as possible. You can be confident that the order you place will be the actual size of lumber you requested and priced in board feet. Our lumber is 1" thick but can be cut to 1/2" thick for an additional $0.50 per board foot.

Pricing: US $6.00 per board foot
