

Attracting Birds to Your Garden

The following plants are a few suggestions for providing food and habitat for birds in your garden. Plants provide small birds with shelter in winter, seeds and berries for food, and nesting material.

Groundcovers	Shrubs
Gaultheria spp. 	Sambucus spp.
	Strawberry Tree/Madrona
Ornamental Grasses	Symphoricarpos spp. **
Chasmanthium latifolium*	Thuja*
Miscanthus spp.*	Vaccinium spp. **
Muhlenbergia spp.*	Viburnum spp.*
Panicum virgatum*	Weiglea
Perennials / Bulbs	Trees/Conifers
Cattails	Acer spp.
Echinecea	Cornus spp. * **
Monarda	Crataegus spp.
Penstemon	Malus spp.*
Salvia	Morus spp.*
	Picea* **
	Pinus* **
Shrubs	Pseudotsuga* **
Amelanchier spp. * 	Tsuga spp.* **
Aronia melanocarpa	Salix spp.
Callicarpa	Sorbus spp.
Chaenomeles japonica
Cotoneaster spp.
Cornus spp.* 	Vines
Kinnikinnick	Parthenocissus spp.*
Mahonia spp. 	Passiflora
Rhododendron spp.	Vitis. spp.*
Rhus typhina*
Ribes
Roses (hips)
Salal

*Species provide winter food source, nesting material, or shelter for birds.

 Species includes some native plants.